

Roti Rolled Away

Written By
Anjana Utarid

Illustrated By
Judy Nicholls

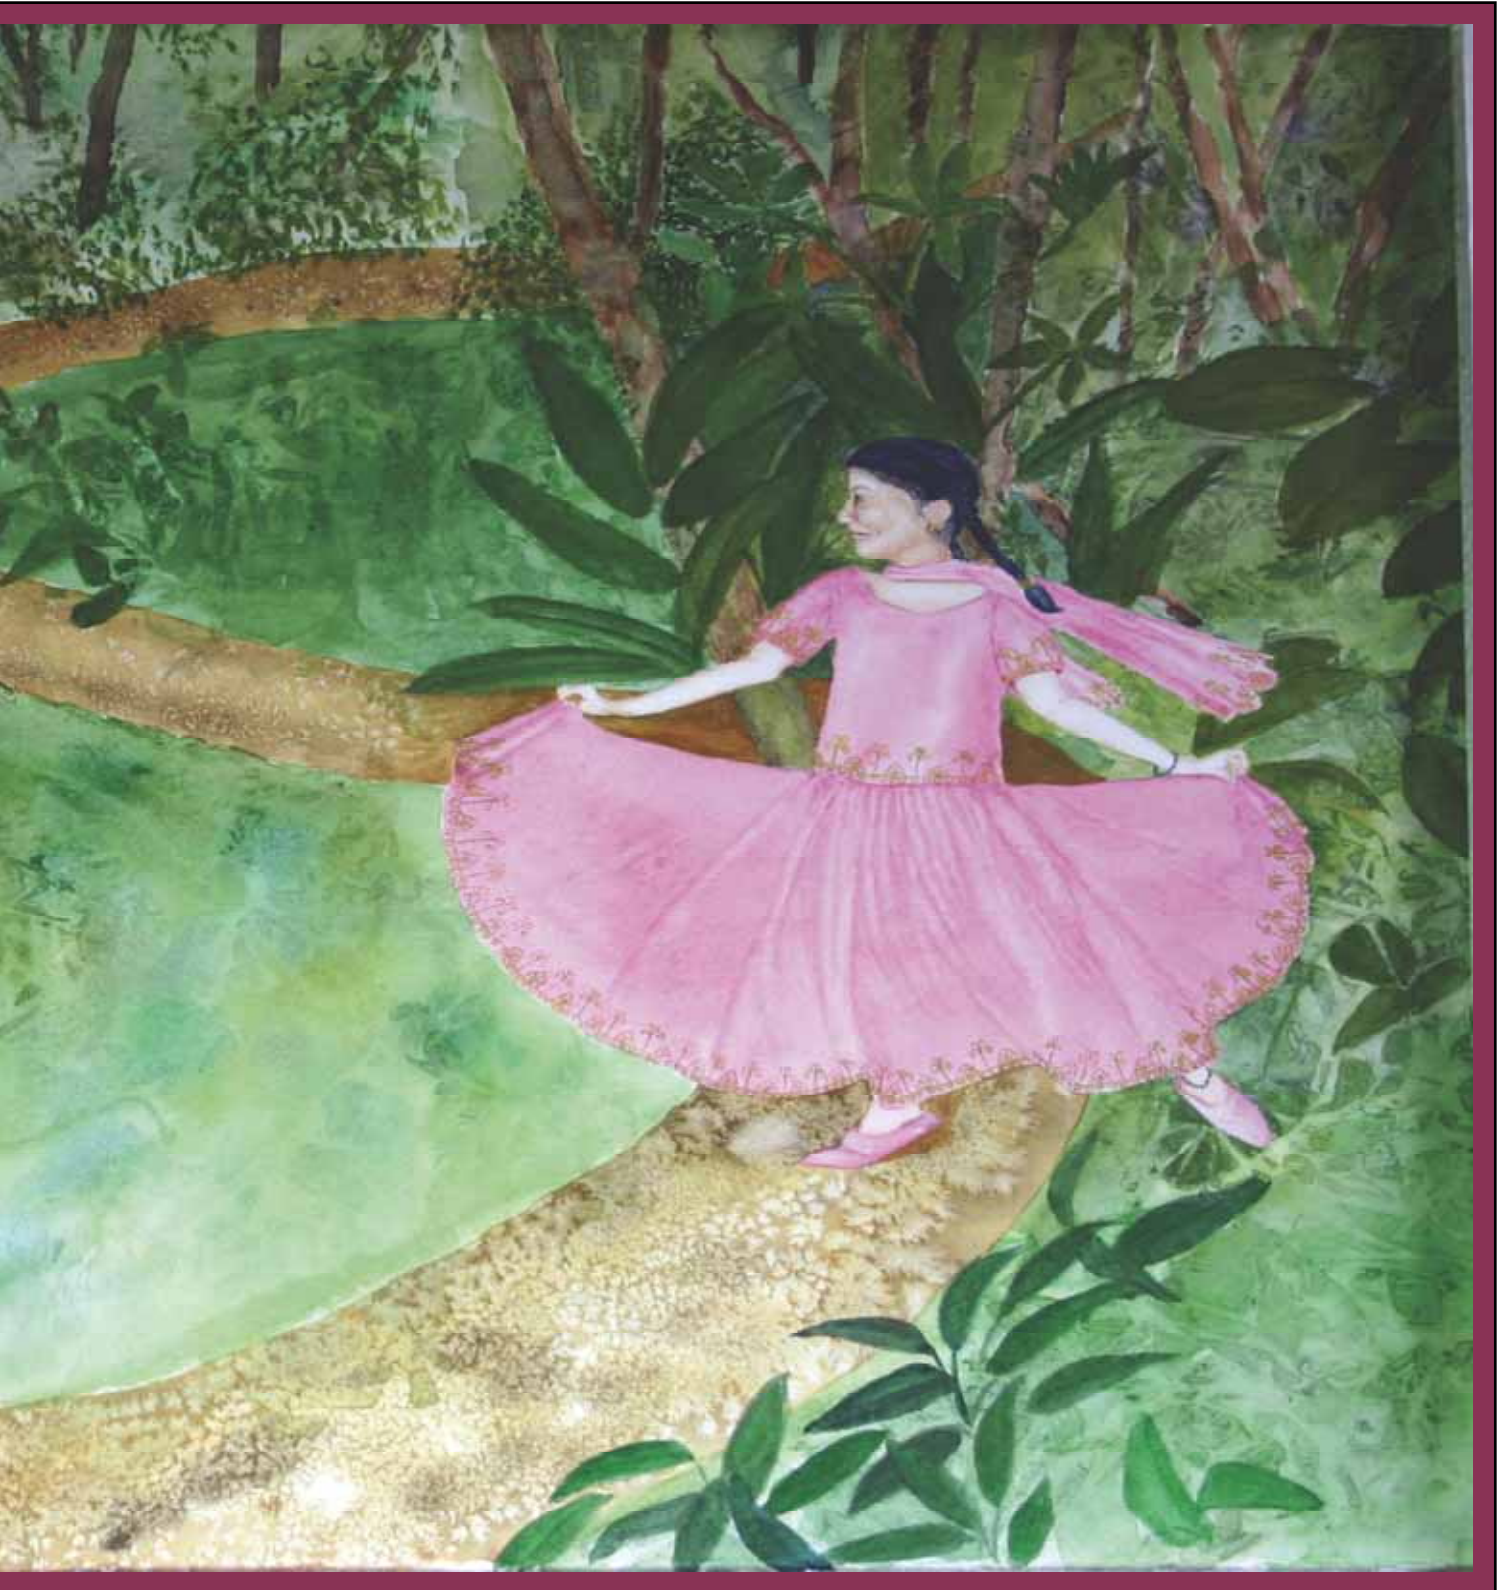

On top of the hill Asha saw a stunning white cow with horns on its head.

Asha said, “Namaste cow, I have to catch my Roti”. The cow watched Asha run right past her.

Now the Roti rolled in the thickest part of the jungle and Asha continued to run after the Roti. Soon Asha saw a beautiful peacock dancing in the jungle.

Asha said, "Namaste peacock, you're dance is so graceful. I would love to watch, but I have to catch my Roti." The peacock kept on dancing.